Welcome

Welcome to our directory of services. In this document you will find all the services that are available to full members of NHS Elect in 2025/26.

These are divided into two key categories: services that all staff in your organisation can access, and bespoke services to meet a particular need. These are explained in detail on the following pages.

We update our offer regularly to enable us to continue to meet the needs of our members, so please ensure you are reading the latest version of this document.

You are also encouraged to get in touch if you are looking for a service that is not shown here, as we are always happy to consider new ways to apply our expertise. Please email us at admin@elect.nhs.uk.

Receive updates from NHS Elect

To hear about the latest webinars, courses, and other development opportunities from NHS Elect, please register for our website.

Registration will also enable you to book directly onto upcoming webinars and courses, and access our library of useful resources.

All staff in your organisation are eligible to register, and we look forward to welcoming as many people as possible online in 2025/26.

What is included in membership?

About NHS Elect

NHS Elect is a national membership network that has been providing NHS organisations with high-quality support and professional development since 2002.

Our team

Hosted by Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust, we are part of the NHS and work with more than 100 members across England and Wales including acute, community, and mental health trusts, as well as Integrated Care Systems (ICSs).

We also work regularly with NHS England and other national bodies. This gives us an in-depth understanding of emerging healthcare policy and best practice from across the UK, which we use to support our members.

Each member of our diverse team plays an important role in delivering impactful services for members.

Our colleagues include:

- Directors with many years of senior management experience
- Clinicians who have worked in a range of roles and specialties
- Leading edge technical and digital specialists
- Experienced project management office and admin staff

You can find out more about us by reading our biographies.

Our areas of expertise

We offer a range of services within the following key areas. We are also able to deliver some services outside of these areas, so please get in touch to discuss your requirements by emailing admin@elect.nhs.uk

Career planning

Communication and engagement

Facilitating groups and teams

Organisational development

Staff wellbeing

Coaching and mentoring

How to book services

Bespoke services

We have a dedicated admin team to help you book any bespoke services that you require. You can contact the team via email at admin@elect.nhs.uk

All bookings will need approval from the account lead in your organisation before they can be processed. Our admin team can let you know who that is.

If you are unsure which of our services would benefit you most, we would encourage you to arrange a conversation with your NHS Elect account manager.

In-house development programmes

In addition to the standalone workshops that are shown on the previous page, our team also deliver a range of integrated development programmes.

Opposite are our most popular programmes, which we can tailor to meet the needs of your organisation. We can also deliver completely customised programmes if required.

Leadership programmes

Our popular leadership programmes bring together key development sessions covering essential leadership skills. Taken together, they create a well-rounded learning experience, typically including:

- Understanding and developing your leadership style
- Coaching skills
- Building high-performing teams
- Conflict fundamentals
- Resilient people and compassionate organisations
- Leading change and human dimensions of change
- Effective negotiation

Sessions can be tailored to your organisation's goals, whether you want to foster a specific culture, or develop organisation-wide competencies. We can also offer additional topics to meet your exact needs.

Reflective leader programme

Every leader is unique and there's no single way to lead. By understanding and honing your own leadership style, you can build confidence and lead with impact. This programme will give you the opportunity to reflect on your personality, preferences and leadership behaviour. Packed with a mix of exercises and useful strategies, you'll grow as a leader, and connect with a supportive network of peers along the way.

Across three full day, face-to-face sessions, we'll cover:

- Discovering your leadership preferences
- What you need to build a high performing team
- The importance of compassionate leadership, psychological safety and inclusion.

Quality improvement practitioner programme

This programme equips both clinical and non-clinical staff with the skills and confidence to lead quality improvement projects that enhance patient care and efficiency. Through interactive modules, you'll learn how to:

- Apply the model for improvement
- Measure meaningful change
- Identify and test solutions
- Influence others and overcome resistance

Delivered through four workshops, online resources, and a celebration event, this team-based programme will help you create lasting improvements.

Happier working lives

Build happier, healthier, and more productive teams. Over three months, up to eight teams will come together to identify barriers to thriving and explore how to create a more positive workplace. Through three full-day workshops (or five online sessions), plus ongoing support and personalised resources, your teams will develop skills in:

- Understanding and measuring happiness
- Thinking creatively to solve challenges
- Creating happier teams
- Influencing others and driving positive change
- Celebrating success and sustaining impact.

Quality improvement coaches

This tailored programme of workshops will develop quality improvement coaches in your organisation, so they can drive change and embed a culture of continuous improvement. Based on the national Quality Coach Development Programme, we can customise content to align with your QI strategy and team needs. Participants will gain:

- Practical tools to support QI projects
- Facilitation techniques to engage teams effectively
- Coaching skills to inspire others
- Strategies to spread QI knowledge and know when to stop.

Through these workshops, participants will develop confidence and build connections in order to create lasting improvements.

To find out more and discuss your programme requirements, please speak to your account manager or email admin@elect.nhs.uk

Session frequency

We usually deliver our programmes to a single group over several months, allowing for practise in between.

Programme content

We will work with you to bring together the topics you need to achieve your development goals.

Method of delivery

We are happy to deliver training in person and can also provide virtual sessions using MS Teams.

National development programmes

In addition to the in-house development programmes that are shown on the previous page, our team also delivers several national development programmes, with more planned for 2025/26.

These programmes bring people together from across the country to learn and develop collaboratively.

Quality Coach Development Programme

 8 days  Online  6 tokens per person

Developed by experts from across the UK and Ireland, this programme is the perfect opportunity for you to strengthen your QI and QI coaching skills. You'll learn advanced concepts, which will enable you to coach your service to carry out improvement work, including:

- Coaching and the foundations of QI
- Working with others and using facilitation techniques
- Developing better measurement frameworks
- The psychology behind change

There are many benefits for organisations that invest in QI coaches, from better patient outcomes, increased staff experience and retention, to creating a culture of continuous improvement.

Leading Happier Teams Programme

 4 x half day sessions  Online  2 tokens per person

Would you like to feel happier at work? Over three months, participants from across the country will come together virtually to identify what stops them thriving.

You'll learn how to create a supportive environment that fosters a more resilient and happier workplace. We'll show you how to apply a proven quality improvement framework to explore team working, wellness, camaraderie and psychological safety.

The programme includes: Understanding and measuring happiness, thinking creatively, enhancing team communication, key QI principles, and more. We'll also provide plenty of real-world examples of what has worked in the NHS and beyond – so you can put these into practice straightaway.

Facilitating Training Programme

 4 x half day sessions  Online  2 tokens per person

Develop your facilitation skills to deliver sessions that truly keep your audience engaged. Over two months, you'll join trainers from across the country to explore the latest facilitation techniques tailored for healthcare.

You won't just learn new ideas, you'll try them out, so you can build your confidence in a supportive environment. You'll also learn how to manage challenging situations, giving you greater assurance to handle anything that comes your way.

This programme will include: How to design a session, engaging effectively, common challenges, and putting your facilitation into action.

Organisational Development Practitioner Programme*

 6 days  In person  8 tokens per person

Develop the confidence and skills to thrive in Organisational Development (OD). This interactive, face-to-face programme is designed for anyone looking to enhance their OD expertise, covering key areas such as OD expertise.

With a hands-on approach, you'll explore OD challenges within healthcare, gain practical tools, and build the capability to drive meaningful change within your organisation. Connect with like-minded professionals, expand your OD network, and develop the confidence to support teams, shape culture, and lead transformation.

This programme provides a solid foundation in OD, giving you the skills to make a lasting impact.

*Design and pricing may develop as we conclude co-design work with our members.

National development programmes

In addition to the in-house development programmes that are shown on the previous page, our team also delivers several national development programmes, with more planned for 2025/26.

These programmes bring people together from across the country to learn and develop collaboratively.

The Collaborative QI Practitioner Programme

 4 x full day sessions  Online  8 tokens per team

This exciting new initiative is for anyone eager to drive meaningful quality improvement work in their area. Developed through extensive national consultation and design workshops, it takes a systems-thinking approach to quality improvement to help teams create improvements that extend beyond traditional boundaries.

Designed by QI leaders, for those ready to make real impact, this programme equips individuals and teams with the skills to structure and deliver sustainable change in health and social care. You'll gain practical tools and strategies to turn improvement ideas into lasting results.

Communications Manager Programme

 6 x half day sessions  Online  2 tokens per person

Step up with confidence as a communications leader in healthcare. Designed for new and aspiring communications managers, this programme will help you build confidence and broaden your expertise. It will provide a solid foundation across key areas - from strategy and stakeholder engagement to influencing, negotiation, and understanding your leadership style.

Tailored specifically for healthcare communications professionals, this interactive programme will help you navigate the unique challenges of the role, connect with peers at the same career stage, and grow your professional network. A valuable investment for communications teams, it strengthens expertise and supports teams to operate at a higher level.

Digital Transformation Programme

 6 x half day sessions  Online  4 tokens per person

Are you leading a digital transformation programme but feel slightly out of your depth? With growing demand to use digital technology in the NHS, more staff are being asked to lead digital transformation programmes without any formal training or support.

Our six-module online programme will help you develop the skills and confidence to deliver effective digital transformation programmes in the NHS. It will cover the full process, including how to address common barriers, such as resistance to change, stakeholder engagement and digital literacy.

Coaching services

The coaching faculty at NHS Elect was founded in 2010/11 and in the years since, has become a core part of the NHS Elect offer to those working at member sites and across the wider NHS.

We have 11 directly employed coaches at NHS Elect, all of whom are trained and have completed the ILM Level 7 Diploma in Executive Coaching and Mentoring in order to practice as a coach. They all undertake regular CPD, coaching supervision and are all registered with the Association for Coaching, working to their professional code of ethics and practice.

We provide bespoke, confidential coaching services to senior clinicians, executives and managers working across the NHS. Our coaching team have all worked at a very senior level in healthcare, so they understand the context in which our clients work and can quickly build empathy and rapport.

Accessing our coaching offer

Prior to commencement all coaching clients will need to agree their access to a coach via NHS Elect, with the membership lead at their organisation (or in the case of non-members, someone able to support and resource their coaching).

Clients will then speak with a member of the coaching faculty at NHS Elect who will explain our approach to coaching, advise on the practicalities and agree next steps. Our coaching conversations with clients are conducted on a confidential basis and clients are all asked to 'contract' with their assigned coach. This will include a commitment to the coaching process, a responsibility to attend agreed coaching appointments and a clear set of goals for the coaching experience overall. Our clients are also given the option to provide feedback to their coach.

A typical coaching arrangement

Our coaching clients receive up to six hours of action-focused coaching, with confidential 60–90 minute sessions available online or, in some cases, face-to-face. Session format, frequency, and duration are agreed directly with the coach.

Using a range of coaching tools, our coaches promote reflection, build insight, and drive action. Each client's needs are unique, so we work together to set clear goals and create a tailored approach for meaningful progress.

Other coaching services from NHS Elect

New ILM coaching qualifications for 2025

We're launching fully accredited ILM coaching qualifications in 2025. Designed for those looking to train and work as a coach in the NHS, these programmes offer expert-led learning and professional development. Benefit from the guidance of our highly qualified team, with thousands of hours of coaching experience across diverse sectors. This programme is run in partnership with Management Futures.

Coaching supervision and CPD for coaches

Coaches in the NHS need ongoing support and professional development to stay effective. To help organisations with this, NHS Elect's qualified coaching supervisors offer coaching supervision and bespoke CPD sessions covering a range of tools, techniques, and topics. Our registered coaching supervisors (Association of Coaching Supervisors) provide expert guidance to help coaches refine their skills, enhance their impact, and continue their professional growth.

Coaching skills training

Many of our coaches deliver coaching skills training for NHS clinicians, leaders, and managers. This practical course introduces the fundamentals of a coaching approach, helping participants develop the skills to empower others and work more effectively.

Accredited by the Association for Coaching, the training is available virtually or face-to-face and can be complemented with access to an online training module for further learning.

To discuss 1:1 coaching or any of the wider coaching services described here, please contact Darren Leech, who is one of our Directors and Head of our Coaching Faculty: darren.leech@elect.nhs.uk

Consultancy and bespoke services

As well as providing learning and development and coaching interventions, we can also deliver a wide range of consultancy services, including hands-on support and delivery.

Full members of NHS Elect can use membership tokens in exchange for consultancy and bespoke services at a rate of four tokens per day. If you would like to pay for additional services, we are pleased to offer a discounted rate.

Experienced consultants

Our experienced team deliver high-impact solutions in a range of key areas.

Flexible delivery

Whether you require ad hoc guidance or more extensive support we can find the right solution for you.

Specialist support

Our core team is supplemented by a range of trusted associates and suppliers to deliver an extensive range of support that is really valued by our members.
