"Being a Scholar at the Oxford Healthcare Improvement Centre has been an interesting experience and a steep learning curve. It has been good to work on my own Quality Improvement project, and to learn about QI on the way. The team have been very supportive and helpful and I've gained much experience in how to start up a quality improvement project from the beginning, how to collect and analyse data and how to report results. And to keep going despite setbacks!"

Romaine Dekker, ST Psychiatrist, Learning Disabilities

www.ohi.org.uk

🐦 @oxhealthimprove

oxfordhealthcareimprovement@oxfordhealth.nhs.uk

Oxford
Healthcare
Improvement